Mystery Grid Drawing Worksheets

Drawing

Finished Examples

This lesson can be completed as a practice worksheet or you can make it a more finished project by completing the drawing on a separate piece of drawing paper. To complete the lesson on drawing paper any size square will work, but 3 x 3 would be easiest as the grid lines would be an even 1" apart.

The drawings can be made into cards, colored, or left as beautiful black-and-white line drawings.

Directions: Draw what you see in the box in the box within the grid that has the corresponding letter and number. Begin lightly in pencil, you can add marker and color at the end if you would like.

Surfboard and Sandcastle

D4	E4	C2	A4		1	2	3	4	5
A2	E3	A3
E2	B3	C3	B4
D3	C4	D2

Tip
If any of the boxes feel too challenging simply draw an X over that box in your reference photo and the same box on your grid. Now look only at what is in each triangle to help you simplify that spot.

Grid Drawing Options

For a larger drawing, you can use this grid or you can also create your own 2 inch grid on 10 x 10 drawing paper and erase the grid marks when you are finished.

Tip

If any of the boxes feel too challenging, simply draw an X over that box in your reference photo and the same box on your grid. Now look only at what is in each triangle to help you simplify that spot.
